Frequently Asked Questions

Q: I (or my child) have had a season passes in the past, but never had a login and password. Do I need to create a new passholder account?

A: No. We have switched to a new ecommerce system that will look you up via email so that we can use your prior account. If you have had a pass before, please click on Summit Guest Sign In, Enter your email address and click on "Create/Forgot Your Password".

If you have never had a pass before then click "Create an Account".

Q: I do not see Unlimited Season passes for ages 7 and up.

A: Unlimited passes are only available for children under 6. Unlimited passes for age 7+ are not offered for your program. Age category based on passholder's age at time of purchase. You can still purchase our LTD (age 7+) or Midweek (Age 13+) season pass and enjoy Alpental Monday through Friday!

Q: What are your Covid-19 protocols?

A: Safety for our guests and staff is our primary focus.

Please visit our website at <https://summitatsnoqualmie.com/covid-19> for the latest protocols on how we are keeping you safe.

Q: How do I get my pass after ordering?

A: All season passes will be mailed. Passes cannot be picked up in-person. If you have not received your pass before your visit, stop by our ticket booth for a passholder ticket.

Q: Does the Student Season Pass come with the Worry-Free Winter Assurance?

A: Yes it does! Worry-Free Winter Assurance provides Summit passholders with two layers of protection for their season pass purchase. First, if for any reason you feel uncomfortable about the upcoming season you have the option to defer the value of your season pass to the 2021/22 season any time before Dec. 10, 2020. Second, if you choose not to defer your pass and The Summit is not open for 105 days or more, you'll receive a credit toward the purchase of a 2021/22 season pass.

Q: Is it possible season passes will sell out before December 10th?

A: Yes. Season passes are available while quantities last. After December 10th you can purchase a season pass at full price if there is still quantity available.
